

TEHAMA COUNTY DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION JOB DESCRIPTION EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR, HUMAN RESOURCE SERVICES

DEFINITION:

Under the supervision of the Superintendent, this position serves as the chief Human Resources officer to plan, organize, direct, and administer human resource services across all county office programs, services and departments. Human Resources is done for the purpose/s of developing, coordinating, and maximizing services related to personnel and to provide direct services to employees regarding employment.

ESSENTIAL FUNCTIONS AND JOB RESPONSIBILITIES:

Any one position may not include all of the listed duties, nor do all of the listed examples include all tasks that may be found in positions within this classification.

- Plan, organize, control, and administer the department's personnel services and programs including employer-employee relations, recruitment, selection, and retention of certificated and classified personnel; participates on interview panels; posts jobs and visit universities and colleges for recruiting purposes.
- Ensure that board policies, state and federal law, and collective bargaining agreements are legally and fairly administered; develops policies and administrative regulations.
- Represent the department in the collective bargaining process for certificated and classified associations by serving as a member of the negotiation team; provide technical expertise to others as needed; implement and monitor collective bargaining contracts.
- Plan, implement, and administer the workers' compensation program, return to work program, and injury and illness prevention program; insure department compliance with federal, state, and local laws.
- Contract management and administering procedures pertaining to employer/employee relations.
- Oversee the employee benefits program, medical verifications, planning and budgeting;
- Communicate with administrators, personnel, service providers, public agencies, attorneys, insurance companies, and other outside organizations to coordinate activities, resolve issues and conflicts, and exchange information.
- Conduct hearings and administer grievance, disciplinary measures, and other personnel actions; serves as mediator for employees.
- Supervise and evaluate the performance of assigned staff for the purpose of providing coaching and feedback regarding their performance; coordinate and arrange for appropriate training of subordinates.
- Oversee or recommend transfers, reassignment, termination, and disciplinary action plans.
- Responsible for certificated and classified layoff procedures, non-reemployment, and leaves.
- Administer salary schedules and salary provisions for compliance with county office policy and regulations.
- Provide counseling and assistance in the resolution of grievances or other job related difficulties of county office employees.
- Respond to inquiries, complaints, and concerns from the general public, school district personnel, community organizations, and staff for the purpose of providing information and resolving issues.
- Provides information and recommendations to the Superintendent and/or Associate Superintendent as needed.
- Acts as a role model by nurturing the desired manner of interaction with others, adhering to Department values placed on people and ideas, and priorities.
- Maintain confidentiality when working through issues with programs and staff.
- Attend regular meetings of the Department and representing the Human Resource Services Department.

Tehama County Department of Education
Job Description
Executive Director, Human Resource Services

Official:
Effective: 03/29/19

- Attend regional and state meetings for the purpose of facilitating the work of the Human Resource Services Department and representing the county office.
- Review/critique/analyze/evaluate/synthesize data, publications, and other relevant information used in the preparation of verbal and written reports, summaries, and other documents.
- Attend/facilitate/coordinate/conduct a variety of meetings, staff development trainings and workshops to receive or provide information; provide professional development for county office and school district staff for the purpose of increasing necessary knowledge and skills.
- Establish and maintain cooperative and effective working relationships with others by supporting staff and school district personnel.
- Represent the Superintendent at local, regional, and state agencies, and make presentations as necessary.
- Conduct staff meetings for the purpose of providing information, exchanging ideas, and resolving issues.
- Perform other duties that may be required of the Department's management personnel.
- Drive frequently for department business.

EDUCATION AND EXPERIENCE:

Any combination of experience and training that would likely provide the required knowledge and skill is qualifying. A typical way to obtain the required knowledge and skill would be:

- Bachelor's degree in a related field required; Master's degree desired.
- Three to five years increasingly responsible management experience preferred.
- Experience in Human Resources/Personnel preferred.
- Experience in designing and conducting professional development programs.
- Valid California driver's license and evidence of insurance

KNOWLEDGE OF:

- Current principles, practices, and trends in public education and human resources.
- Education, labor, health/disability, and other laws, codes, rules and regulations related to classified and certificated personnel.
- Labor relations, negotiations, and legal services.
- Credentialing laws and certification of compliance issues.
- Contract management.
- Conflict resolution strategies and processes.
- California Standards for the Teaching Profession; California Education Code.
- School organization, operations, policies, goals and objectives.

ABILITY TO:

- Maintain confidentiality.
- Administer all programs of the Human Resource Services Department.
- Interpret, apply, and explain rules, regulations, policies, and procedures.
- Analyze situations and needs effectively and adopt effective courses of action.
- Establish and maintain cooperative and professional working relationships with employees, school district personnel, board members, community members, and public and private agency personnel.
- Demonstrate effective communication skills both orally and in writing.
- Direct, manage, and evaluate personnel.
- Utilize public speaking techniques.
- Respect and maintain professional confidences.
- Meet schedules and timelines; work independently with minimal direction.

Tehama County Department of Education
Job Description
Executive Director, Human Resource Services

Official: _____
Effective: 03/29/19

PHYSICAL DEMANDS:

The physical requirements indicated below are examples of the physical aspects that this position classification must perform in carrying out essential job functions.

- Persons performing service in this position classification will exert 25 to 30 pounds of force frequently to lift, carry, push, pull, or otherwise move objects. This type of work involves sitting, standing, and walking frequently.
- Perceiving the nature of sound, near and far vision, depth perception, providing oral information, the manual dexterity to operate business related equipment, and handle and work with various materials and objects are important aspects of this job.

Reasonable accommodation may be made to enable a person with a disability to perform the essential functions of the job.

TERMS OF EMPLOYMENT:

Salary and work year to be established by County Superintendent.

HRS Office Use Only

Created: May 26, 2016

Revised: March 29, 2019

APPROVED

Print Name: Noelle DeBortoli Title: Executive Director, Human Resource Services

Signature: Noelle DeBortoli

Date: March 29, 2019